19th August 19:30 at CCF. Release International meeting with Dr Berhane.

Dr Berhane is a former prisoner of faith from Eritrea. He now lives in the UK where he continues to serve Christians in Eritrea who have been arrested and imprisoned for their faith. His new autobiography, Brother, I have come to arrest you, tells his powerful story. In her commendation of the book, Fiona Bruce MP, Vice Chair of the All-Party Parliamentary Group for International Freedom of Religion or Belief, writes:

'This book needed to be written – and needs to be read. The world should know of the suffering and bravery of thousands of Eritreans, barbarically imprisoned, tortured, and killed - simply on account of their beliefs. And to know that this is happening right now, in the third decade of the 21st Century...This profound account of Dr Berhane's own experiences, and those of other Eritreans, is living testament to Paul's words in the Bible "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness" (2 Cor 12:9).'
